GlobalSubmit Unveils New Brand and Website

Philadelphia, PA— February 15, 2010 - GlobalSubmit Inc., (www.globalsubmit.com) a leading developer of software designed exclusively for the review and validation of electronic Common Technical Document (eCTD) global submissions, announces the launch of its new brand and website. With the help of Colorado-based graphic design firm Designer Rangers, GlobalSubmit brings to life its vision of a highly educational, interactive, user-friendly website. Here, industry and Health Authorities including the U.S. FDA -- which uses GlobalSubmit REVIEW™ and VALIDATE™ software exclusively -- will be able to find Guidance, Best Practices, presentations, white papers, events announcements and more.

Says GlobalSubmit CEO Rahul Mistry, “As GlobalSubmit continues to grow, our responsibility to provide transparency within the regulated healthcare industry has never been clearer. With that sentiment, we started an initiative to create a look and feel that is consistent with that mission. Today, I am proud to announce the launch of GlobalSubmit’s new look.”

The re-branding and site launch come during a period of immense growth for GlobalSubmit. The company will soon release a new version of its REVIEW and VALIDATE solution suite as well as its newest product, PUBLISH™. When released, PUBLISH will be the fastest, easiest-to-use, publishing solution in the industry.
